

Partner with Quality Insights:

A Strategic Approach to Advancing Health Equity for Priority Populations with or At Risk for Diabetes

Areas of Focus:

- Clinical and Social Support
- Diabetes Management
- National Diabetes Prevention Programs
- Social Determinants of Health

What We Offer:

- Improve clinical quality measures through accurate reporting.
- Streamline electronic health record systems and office workflows.
- Provide clinician and staff education.
- Identify and address social determinants of health workflows.
- Implement and strengthen team-based care.
- Build and enhance community-clinical links.
- Promote use of diabetes self-management practices.

The Stats in Pennsylvania:

10% of the PA adult population has been diagnosed with diabetes¹

136 million Americans are living with diabetes or prediabetes²

76 # of PA CDC-recognized organizations offering the National DPP³

Sources:

1. The Burden of Diabetes in Pennsylvania, 2025: <https://diabetes.org/sites/default/files/2025-05/the-burden-of-diabetes-pennsylvania-05-08-25.pdf>
2. American Diabetes Association, <https://diabetes.org/about-us/health-access-commitment>
3. Diabetes Prevention Program Registry, <https://dprp.cdc.gov/registry>

Check Us Out Online:

Visit the Quality Insights website to learn more about this initiative.

Funding provided by the Pennsylvania Department of Health as part of the Advancing Health Equity for Priority Populations with or at Risk for Diabetes federal grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (DP-23-0020). Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Publication number PADOH-DM-062425

Connect with Quality Insights: Ashley Biscardi at 1.800.642.8686, ext. 2137 or email abiscardi@qualityinsights.org. Visit our website at <https://www.qualityinsights.org/stateservices> or scan the QR code.