

Improve Diabetes Care at
No Cost to Your Practice

A Strategic Approach to Advancing Health Equity for Priority Populations with or at Risk for Diabetes

Areas of Focus

Improving
Diabetes Outcomes

Reducing Administrative Burden

Strengthening Team-Based Care

Connecting
Patients with Community Resources

The Stats in Pennsylvania:

More than 1.18 million (10%) Pennsylvanians live with diabetes-and primary care practices play a critical role in improving outcomes.

Source: The Burden of Diabetes in Pennsylvania, 2025:

<https://www.cdc.gov/diabetes/communication-resources/diabetes-statistics.html>

What We Offer

- Improve quality measure performance while simplifying clinical reporting.
- Reduce administrative burden by improving EHR workflows.
- Strengthen staff workflows through practical training and technical assistance.
- Connect patients to diabetes education and community resources that support healthier outcomes.
- Empower patients to achieve better diabetes control and health outcomes.

Connect with Quality Insights

Ashley Biscardi at 1.800.642.8686, ext. 2137 or email abiscardi@qualityinsights.org. Visit our website at <https://www.qualityinsights.org/stateservices> or scan the QR code.

Funding provided by the Pennsylvania Department of Health as part of the Advancing Health Equity for Priority Populations with or at Risk for Diabetes federal grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (DP-23-0020). Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Publication number PADOH-DM-062425